Allies Assaulting Last Nazi Gun Positions Blocking Sea Lane to Antwerp

LONDON, Nov. 1—(P)—British commandos stormed ashore today on the southern and western coast of Walcheren island, and were making good progress tonight in a pincer drive to smash the last Germans barring the sea lane to Antwerp.

The seaborne forces landed as Canadians burst across the steel trestle causeway onto the eastern edge of the island, establishing a small beachhead there despite heavy Nazi resistance.

A dispatch from Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's headquarters declared the commandos were biting inland across the flooded island.

By William Frye

LONDON, Nov. 1—(P)—Allied amphibious forces have landed on the south shore of Walcheren island and are assaulting the last Nazi gun positions blocking the sea lane to Antwerp, the Berlin radio declared today.

The Germans said the seaborne strike was aimed at Vlissingen (Flushing), on the lower tip of Walcheren, even as Canadians to the east fought across the narrow causeway from conquered south Beveland Island through a wall of enemy fire.

The Allies landed on Walcheren after an artillery barrage from the south shore of the Scheldt estuary, only recently cleared of Germans, the Berlin broadcast said. It gave no hint of the progress of the assault, and there was no Allied confirmation of such a landing.

Adjoining South Beveland Island, however, had been captured in the same kind of squeeze attack, with British forces landing on the southern coast while Canadians pushed across the land causeway.

Three-quarters of Walcheren had been flooded by Allied bomb-bombing of its dikes, with sea water sweeping over some of the German batteries controlling the estuary approach to Allied-held Antwerp.

Center Blocks Canadians

Eight miles northeast of Vlissingen (population 23,000), the Canadians had almost completely negotiated the 1,100-yard-long strip of causeway from Beveland to Walcheren, late front dispatches said.

The Canadians apparently still were 25 yards short of actually fighting onto Walcheren, blocked by a huge bomb crater and meeting concentrated artillery, mortar, and machine-gun fire. An earlier dispatch said they had crossed onto Walcheren, but this was not borne out by later information.

Below the Maas river, Allied columns struggled through knee-deep mud in pursuit of Germans escaping over the river behind a screen of stubborn rearguard actions.

All field dispatches indicated the Germans had generally succeeded in escaping an Allied trap.

Berlin declared Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery had never drawn on the mass of his forces around Nijmegen for the battle to clear southwestern Holland, but was keeping them intact for an offensive aimed at reaching the north German plain.

The German radio also declared that on the front in France, a strong American attack supported by more than 100 tanks had captured Montigny, 15 miles east of Luneville. The German communiqué said French elements had entered Baccarat, 14 miles southeast of Luneville.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 1—(P)—Alleging overcharges in the sale of furniture and bedding, the office of price administration yesterday filed in federal district court a suit for triple damages of $98,977.65 against the J. E. King Manufacturing Company and five allied firms of Springfield, Mo. An earlier complaint against the King Company, alone, asks damages of $272,604.

Lots of Christmas Trees This Year

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1—(P)—There is good news about Christmas trees.

The agriculture department's forestry service expects enough trees to meet demand. Cutting began about two weeks ago.

And the trees will be moved to market, it was stated at the office of the Association of American Railroads.

'Swell' Idea For the Navy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1—(P)—The letter, addressed simply to "Boss of the Guns, Navy Department," caused quite a stir when it was opened by the office of inventions here.

"My idea is swell," the navy's correspondent began. "You attach a big net, a great big one, to a couple of torpedoes. You aim em at a big battleship. They run after she and catch up. Then the propeller gets caught in the net and busts."

"hope you use my swell idea as I thawt on it for a helluva long spell. For freedom, liberty and our good old U. S. A."

"A PATRYOTIC SITION."

The self-propelled submarine trap was only one of the thousands of suggestions which have been received by the office since Pearl Harbor, Lt. (jg) R. E. McCord discloses in an article in "Shipmates," a publication of the United States naval academy alumni association.

Rogers Surprised At Some Newspapers

NEW YORK, Nov. 1—(P)—Robert E. Hannigan, Democratic National chairman, announced today that former Representative Will Rogers, Jr., now serving as a second lieutenant in the American army in Holland, sent back word that he was "astounded to hear that my newspaper back in the states printed an editorial endorsing Dewey."

Rogers' newspaper is the Beverly Hills, Calif., Citizen. Hannigan said the message was sent to him by Mrs. Will Rogers, Jr., from Los Angeles and in it Rogers asked that the message go "to my friend President Roosevelt."

Election Bets

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 1—(P)—President Roosevelt, a New Yorker, who laughingly told Washington newspapermen yesterday that he had made a "two-bit" bet on the outcome of next Tuesday's voting in an unidentified state, really started something.

A few hours earlier Nathaniel L. Goldstein, attorney-general of New York, issued a more or less routine pre-election warning that New York voters could be denied a ballot if they bet on the election. The White House last week announced the president, as usual, expected to cast his ballot at his Hyde Park, N. Y., home.

Mr. Roosevelt, as almost every-

Call Directs Firemen to Wrong Place

In Meantime Blaze Gains Much Headway

Excitement in reporting a fire this morning resulted in the wrong address being received by the fire companies, and a delay in the fire fighters reaching the proper address in time to save a home from destruction. The fire was at the home of Mrs. Sarah Miller, 1615 South Marvin avenue, at 8:58 o'clock, and before the fire companies arrived at the scene, the entire roof of the dwelling had caved into the house.

Neighbors succeeded in saving a washing machine, which was on the back porch, while all of the contents, furniture, clothing, food and other articles were destroyed by the flames which were fanned by a breeze.

The fire companies and police first received the call for 1615 South Moniteau avenue, then another call was received that it was 615 South Marvin, which East Sedalia fire companies received and had gone to that address. The West Sedalia company went to the 615 South Moniteau address, having received that through the police radio from police headquarters, to the patrol car, which answered the alarm.

The East Sedalia firemen called back and were informed there was a call to the 700 block on East Sixteenth street, but believed the fire was at 1615 South Marvin. By this time the firemen could see the smoke and flames and hurried to the scene. The origin of the fire was sparks from a burning flue.

Truck Motor Dies

A line of hose was being laid by the East Sedalia men when the motor suddenly died, a part having fallen from the gasoline line. It was still more than a block to the fire, so firemen with the help of neighbors began dragging the hose to the fire. In the meantime the East Sedalia truck arrived and laid out a line of hose to the fire.

The flames gained much headway due to the delays, and for a time threatened the home of J. S. Henderson, 1619 South Marvin, where the roof likewise caught fire. However, the loss here was small, estimated at about $10. The loss to the Miller house. (Please turn to Page 4, Column 5)

Today the attorney general was reported "out of his office." His assistants declined public comment, beyond citing the voting law quoted yesterday by Goldstein.

The state constitution says "No person who shall . . . make or become directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager depending upon the result of any election shall vote at such election."

It also explains that "upon challenge for such cause, the person so challenged . . . shall deny or affirm . . . that he has not . . . made or become directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager depending upon result of such election."

Doughboys are Germans Abandon Kecskemet Advancing on Leyte Island

24th Division Within Two Miles Of Carigara

By C. Yates McDaniel

GEN. MACARTHUR HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Nov. 1—(P)—Doughboys of the 24th division smashed another Japanese rear guard concentration and advanced to within five miles of the strategic coastal village of Carigara today, as another American column on the coast braced itself for a possible climactic battle or Nipponese counterattack.

(Later Australian dispatches reported the 24th division had driven within two miles of Carigara, and 7th division columns in the south had pushed halfway across Leyte island.)

The infantrymen captured the town of Tunga, on the Jaro-Carigara highway which runs through northwestern Leyte valley. Retiring enemy forces blew up a bridge at the end of the town, however, and further advance appeared to be halted temporarily.

Two miles eastward, along the highway, the doughboys broke the back of another Japanese delaying concentration.

Associated Press war correspondent Fred Hampson reported the Japanese raked the roads with heavy and light artillery, mortars and machine guns, exacting a "considerable toll."

Japanese Withdrew

The Nipponese withdrew only after Americans had hammered the roadside for hours with artillery and had thrown a flanking column around the enemy.

The second American column, the First Cavalry division, was poised at Barugo, a coastal town five miles from Carigara. The Japanese must stop both legs of the American advance or lose their last strategic base northeast of Leyte's main-killing, heavily jungled mountains.

If they fail to stop the attacks, which might reach the village today, they must drop back along a single escape route skirting the coast to Panapopan, only spot from which they might negotiate a winding trail over the mountains to the south. This trail has been the route of Japanese reinforcements brought from Cebu via Ormoc Bay, and the forces in the north must reverse their travel on the same treacherous road or face annihilation. No good port lies west of Panapopan on the north coast, and only a trail leads even to the scattered villages in that mountainous sector.

Bomb Lights

He told of bomb lights. These are used at night when armies usually move their troops and when dropped from a plane, light up the country for miles, making it possible to take aerial pictures of the movements of the troops of the enemy.

Motion picture photography has been one of the greatest morale builders of the war, he said. Movies have been taken everywhere, even on the front lines.

Noel Tweet presided over the meeting.

Urge Chiang Kai-Shek To Join Japanese

NEW YORK, Nov. 1—(P)—A Japanese broadcast beamed to China last night urged Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek to join his "kith and kin, the one billion people of Asia, in Japan's war against the United States and Britain."

The broadcast, recorded by CBS, followed announcement of Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's recall from China, and declared "It might be easy to deal with Communists with Japanese aid."

The White House said today the remainder of the program will be filled in by the Democratic national committee.

The president's speech will be broadcast by NBC. White House Secretary Stephen Early said he could not give a line on the subject to be discussed.

Mr. Roosevelt held his engagements down today to work on the speech and those coming up on his New England tour. He did not go to his office, but worked in the living quarters of the executive mansion.

Lehmer Guest Speaker at Lions Meeting

Explains Many Purposes of Photography Today

E. H. Lehmer was speaker today at the noon meeting of the Lions club at Hildebrandt cafe, taking for his subject: "Photography."

Mr. Lehmer told of the important part photography is playing in the war. Plans, sketches and maps are now reproduced by photographic processes, doing away with the necessity of reproducing the many extra copies by hand, he said.

He declared aerial photography has been one of the most valuable aids in winning the war; that lenses have been perfected so accurate that from 20,000 feet in the air it is possible to tell whether man has walked across a field on which there is dew. They can tell the height of the trees, telephone poles or whether weapons are hidden in the brush.

Recall of Gen. Stilwell Is Military

CHUNGKING, Nov. 1—(P)—Chinese minister of information Liang Han-Chao told foreign correspondents today that the recall of Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell to Washington was purely a military matter and for that reason no comment would be forthcoming here.

"Inasmuch as this is a military matter—a change of military personnel—we have no statement to make," Liang replied in response to a query at a press conference.

"There is no political issue, then?" a correspondent asked. "No," interjected Foreign office spokesman Dr. K. O. Wu, "President Roosevelt has made that clear."

Liang denied a suggestion that the Chinese government had taken the attitude that if the correspondents did not like the increasingly severe censorship they could get out of China.

News of the reaction here to the resignation of U. S. Ambassador Clarence E. Gauss was held up by Chinese censorship.

Ambassador Gauss Resigns, Called Home

FDR Making Clean Sweep of Top U. S. Personnel in China

By John M. Hightower

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1—(P)—President Roosevelt is making a clean sweep of top American personnel in China, including Ambassador Clarence E. Gauss, in a supreme attempt to reinvigorate the Chinese war effort under leadership of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

Doubt that the move will succeed is already apparent in military quarters here where strategists speak with less and less confidence about China's future war role.

Diplomatists are still hopeful that Chiang may be induced to shakeup his government and army command and reconcile himself to the Communists in north China in order to strengthen his government. The whole issue within China should come to a head in the Kuomintang party's central executive committee the middle of this month.

Apparently to save what he can in line with American policy of building up China as a power now and a great postwar nation, President Roosevelt has made these moves thus far:

1. Recalled General Joseph W. Stilwell from his triple China-Burma-India command at the request of Chiang and replaced him with Maj. Gen. A. C. Wedemeyer.

2. Announced at yesterday's news conference the resignation of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

Unconfirmed Report Is Indicated by Radio Reports From Japanese

By The Associated Press

Superforts bombed Tokyo today in the first American raid on the Nipponese capital in more than two years, unconfirmed Japanese radio reports indicated.

In a series of confused reports, Tokyo radio said a B-29, apparently from a newly developed base in the Marianas islands appeared over the capital but left "without attempting attacks"; that several four-engined planes were over the city; that at least one plane raided a factory district throwing workers into confusion.

The reports all agreed that an enemy plane or planes were over the Tokyo area around 1 p. m. Wednesday (Tokyo Time).

Matches Be Scarce

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1—(P)—Hold that light!
In the next six months, civilians will get hardly any matches except "household strike-anywhere type," the War Production Board said on Tuesday.
Ninety percent of all penny box matches and 25 per cent of book matches produced in the next six months must go to the armed services, WPB reported. It said "the strike anywhere" kind will be produced in sufficient quantity to meet all civilian needs.

Dari Ann says

Did you ever start to make a recipe and find you had no sour milk or buttermilk? I had that happen yesterday. The "girls" were coming for lunch, and I planned—in fact WAS—whipping up my orange biscuits which require buttermilk. I remembered about using DARICRAFT with vinegar, and it REALLY worked! In fact, the biscuits were THE best I'd ever made. To get sour milk or buttermilk quickly, add 1 tablespoon vinegar to 1/2 cup DARICRAFT and 1/2 cup water and proceed. Here's the recipe:

Orange Biscuits
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon soda
2 teaspoons baking powder
Sift into mixing bowl, then add and mix to consistency of coarse meal
4 tablespoons grated orange peel
1/4 cup shortening
Mix following in measuring cup and add to above slowly
1 1/2 cup DARICRAFT
1/2 cup water
Scant tablespoon vinegar
3 tablespoons orange juice
Knead slightly on floured board, roll and cut. Sprinkle top with sugar and orange juice. Bake in hot oven (450°) for 15 min.

Remember, the SECRET is DARICRAFT. You can get it at your grocers. Be sure to have a can for that "emergency" when you will need sour or buttermilk in a jiffy.

The Sedalia Council of Girl Scouts are paying tribute this week to the leaders. Being a Girl Scout leader is a wonderful tonic for any woman—for you can't help feeling younger when at least once a week you meet with ten or twenty youngsters who are so full of life and enthusiasm that some of it just naturally transfers itself to you. It's a good thing, too, because you need a lot of energy to keep up with a troop of Girl Scouts. "You have no idea now 'busy' girls are nowadays and the variety of things they can think of to do in the course of a single day," said Mrs. H. N. Lambirth, chairman of the leaders. November is registration month in Sedalia, and the following leaders are busy with this work now.

Smith-Cotton—Mesdames A. A. Studebaker, O. M. Clouser, Cecil Owen, Elmer Dillard, O. W. Lewis, J. W. Eisenhart, Jane Harris Lustig and Miss Betty Ann Hulise.

Broadway — Mesdames G. W. Anderson, J. W. Leftwich, W. B. Roach, Jr., C. H. Hand, Moultrie Patton, Paul Houston, L. C. Williams, Miss Frankie June Rogers and Peggy Ellis.

Mark Twain—Mesdames Cline Cain, D. J. Rhule, Jr., C. R. Sheets, Elmo Harlan, Clyde Swafford, William Labus, Miss Joann Connelly and Miss Jacqueline Hatfield.

Washington—Mesdames Ernest Liebel, T. I. Simms and M. M. Bailey.

Whittier — Mesdames Cecil Glenn and H. R. Kettle.

Horace Mann — Mesdames S. Vandermerwe, A. L. Schaberg, Miss Hazel Barnett and Miss Kay Herrick.

Jefferson — Mesdames H. N. Lambirth and Clifford Hayes.

St. Patrick — Mesdames Felix Sullivan, J. J. Comer, Miss Barbara Huila and Mrs. M. J. Robb.

Sacred Heart—Mesdames Peter English, Joseph Ryan, E. S. Behen, T. A. Wilding, E. M. Franke, Lawrence Wolf and Mrs. C. A. Quin.

Hubbard—Mrs. Orlander Black, Misses Ollie Lee Tutt, Gwendolyn McDuffie, Dorothy Moore, Catherine Redmon and Eloise Murrell.

Right here in Sedalia we are in need of assistant leaders. There are three age groups you can work with—Brownies, seven to ten years old; Intermediates, ten to fourteen; and Senior Scouts, fourteen to eighteen.

Last year we were all struggling earnestly and sincerely to meet our goal of "a million or more by '44." Now we have our million—and more. Sedalia Girl Scouts registered in November, the 15th is the dead line. Leaders be sure to register your troop on time. Let's get every girl registered, and registered on time.

Registration means belonging to a world-wide organization of girls who share in the same ideals and the same program. It means being identified with more than one million members in the United States.

This means a fitting celebration of Juliette Low's birthday, the founder of Girl Scouts in America. Plans are being made for Field Day at Liberty Park early in November for registered troops.

Chuckles On 'Thousand Club'

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1—(P)—President Roosevelt acknowledged Tuesday that the "One Thousand Club" may have stemmed from a suggestion he once made.
Amid much banter, he told a news conference that he was a member and that he had received a certificate worth maybe half a cent. His implication seemed to be that was all any individual would receive from membership in the organization which Governor Thomas E. Dewey asserted was formed to "sell special privilege" to persons contributing $1,000 to the fourth term campaign.
Mr. Roosevelt chuckled when a reporter brought up the subject of the "One Thousand Club."
Way back in the summer, the President related, he suggested that somebody start a $100,000 club but people just laughed. Then he suggested a $10,000 club but they still laughed and said no one would give, so he suggested a $1,000 club and they said they might get a few members.
Mr. Roosevelt said he thought no more about it until a few days ago when a man from Chicago came in and gave him a certificate worth maybe half a cent and told him he was a member of the club.

"What does it entitle you to?" a reporter asked.
The President said he would have to find that out.

National Girl Scout Week
The Girl Scouts of America have laid a foundation for better womanhood by instilling high ideals of service in their members which cling to them through maturity. Their girls are the women today who are unselfishly devoting time, money . . . their very lives to winning this war. They are fighting valiantly by doing their bit—whatever it may be—the best they know how. In the factory, home or armed services . . . each is applying the principles she learned as a Girl Scout. Use her as an example! If you're being blasé about this business of war, PERK UP and take a tip from the Girl Scouts! Make THEIR code YOUR code! Find your place in the war effort and do your best to help end this war!

'Thanks, Kids,' Says Anson Finnell after Hallowe'en

Ghosts, phantoms, witches, hob-goblins and numerous other grotesquely attired creatures moved up and down Ohio avenue Tuesday night in a self-appointed celebration of Hallowe'en and all seemed to enjoy milling about through the crowds on the street. There was no organized celebration.

There was jollity and for the greater part harmless fun, with rowdiness held to a very mild degree.

Windows of business houses and glass in automobiles were liberally soaped chiefly by young boys and girls and in some instances drawings were made on them by some of the artistically inclined.

The police force was augmented by holding members of the day force on until late at night and also by the American Legion auxiliary police with Cecil Glenn as chief of that group.

Besides the two regular radio patrol cars, three American Legion auxiliary police cars were patrolling the residential district during the night.

The police had nine calls during the night, two of which were to a local theatre where Hallowe'en celebrators became a little too noisy for the picture show and had to be quieted down. The other calls were to break up "gangs" of eral personally; he considers that he has an excellent record. The president left no doubt that while he heeded Chiang's request to replace Stilwell he did not thereby intend any reflection on the general.

Fined For Careless Driving

Stanley Gehlken, 324 North Engineer avenue, was arrested this morning on a charge of reckless driving and was fined $10 by Judge C. W. Bente after he pleaded guilty.

Gehlken was accused of backing into an automobile of Ray Mathews, who had his car parked at Second street and Ohio avenue, doing some damage to the vehicle.

E. Y. Keiter In Address Here

The GOP meeting at Washington school Tuesday night, sponsored by the Third Ward Republicans and at which E. Y. Keiter, of St. Louis, spoke, was a large success, according to E. L. Zoellig, who presided at the meeting. More than 250 people were in the school auditorium.

First was listening to the radio address by presidential candidate Dewey after which E. L. Zoellig introduced the county candidates of Republicans for office and Dick Keenan who in turn introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Keiter.

Centering his address around how people are taking advantage of the war in money making schemes, Keiter pointed out some of the disgusting practices of people over here while our American boys were being killed over there in an effort to protect us.

After his speech other short addresses were given by A. E. Brockman, in behalf of Jean Paul Bradshaw, candidate for governor of Missouri and Guy Peabody.

Announcement of an address to be given by O. K. Armstrong, at the C. C. Hubbard high school Monday night at 8 o'clock was also given.

It was announced there will be a banquet for Pettis County Republicans at the Bothwell Hotel Monday night in honor of candidate Bradshaw. Only enough tickets to fill the room for the banquet will be given out.

Pie and coffee was served Tuesday night. Those in charge stated that a large number of Republican women in the ward spent the morning making pies.

Music was furnished by the Happy Miller boys.

Merry-go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1 — Most Americans have been so engrossed in the World War that if you told them war was brewing right here in the western hemisphere, they never would believe it.

Yet buzzing backstage in the Washington diplomatic corps has been a growing, worrying reverberation over the ultimate danger of war between Argentina and Chile — not this year, perhaps not next year, but before very long.

Additional attention was focused on the unhappy situation with Argentina's bid for a conference of Pan-American foreign ministers — on an obvious move to put the U. S. A. on the spot and force recognition of the Fascist Farrell militarist government in Argentina.

The whole tangled diplomatic controversy between Argentina, the United States and other neighbors is so involved that it takes an expert to understand it. But out of the mess emerges those basic and alarming facts:

1 — Argentina is rushing armament. Hedy Lamar's former husband, Fritz Mandel, the Austrian munitions king, about whom "Idiot's Delight" was written, is busy building airplanes for Argentina night and day.

2 — Argentina could bomb Santiago, capital of Chile, from Mendoza, just across the Andes, in 40 minutes. It would take five hours for Chile to bomb Buenos Aires, the capital of Argentina.

3 — The people of Chile today are worried sick over Argentina. The Socialist, Communist and Conservative parties, usually vigorously divergent, are now united on this. They fear that the Argentine Fascists, looking for means of keeping themselves in power, as Hitler did with the German people, will make a Czechoslovakia out of Chile.

Brazilians Admire Argentina
Other Latin Americans are divided. Paraguay, Bolivia, Peru sympathize with Argentina. Officially Brazil does not. But actually the Brazilian people, plus many of the Brazilian people, are rooting sympathetically for the one country south of the Rio Grande which has successfully thumbed its nose at the Colossus of the North and got away with it.

Nothing succeeds like success, especially in the Latin American mind. The state department adopted only halfway measures with Argentina; snubbed her diplomatically, but made her prosperous economically by continuing to buy meat. The Argentines didn't care much if they were snubbed as long as they were prosperous.

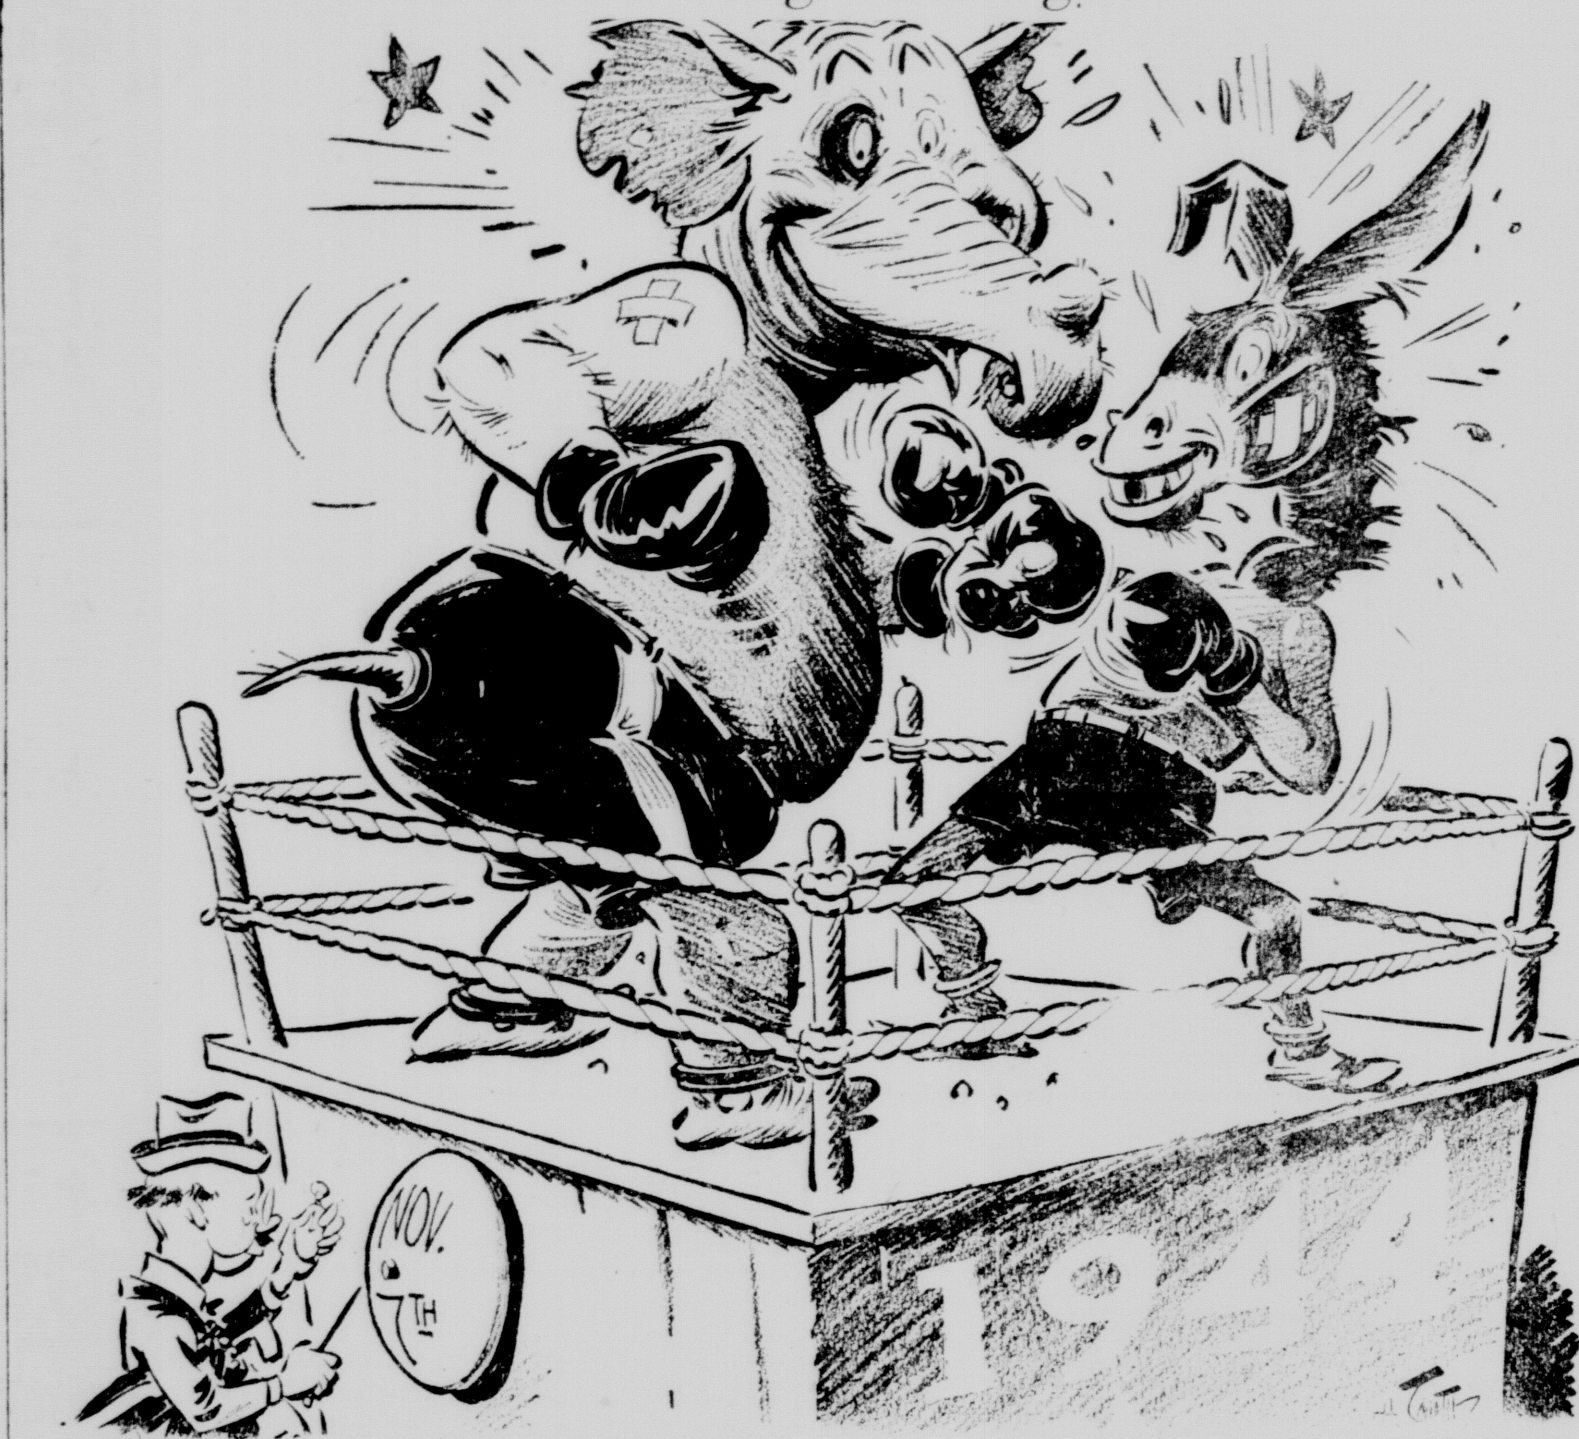

Result is that many "good neighbors," though not liking Argentine Fascism, enjoy seeing U. S. diplomacy come to grief.

Note — Meanwhile the United States is less equipped to handle things in our own hemisphere than ever before in two decades. Secretary Hull is sick. His best Latin American experts were friends of Sumner Welles and were given the gate after Welles resigned.

New York's Idea of it
At a recent state department press conference, a newsmen asked acting secretary of state Ed Stettinius:

"Have you seen the literary test

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns will culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

XXVIII

A FALSE peace is more dangerous than no peace at all.

Ever since the Germans suffered their first serious setbacks in Russia they have been launching one campaign for peace after another along three different lines—economic, diplomatic, and military. On our wisdom in seeing through the false offers depends the durability of the real peace.

The economic campaign started first, to secure German acquisitions and holdings throughout the world. Businessmen from Germany or from occupied countries descended on towns in Switzerland and Spain, Turkey and Sweden. In a lawyer's office, for instance, a group of quislings would meet with one of these men, found a holding company of some sort, and issue bearer certificates to specified individuals. Then they would all depart, leaving a minimum of records of their transactions. But their purpose would have been accomplished. They had created legalistic caches for dishonestly acquired property which the German representatives meant to hold after the war, either directly or indirectly.

Other Germans started regular black markets in neutral countries. They came as "anti-Nazi refugees," and often told heartrending tales of Nazi persecution. They brought jewels, shares in German and French concerns, shares in foreign industries seized by the Germans. Everything they had brought they sold cheaply—they were refugees, and they had to live. Oddly enough, many of them were the very men and women who had been the most fanatically Nazi when we used to meet them in Berlin as late as 1941.

These people were not merely Nazi rats fleeing the sinking ship. Many of them were sent by Berlin to do a dual job: to get foreign cash, which finances Nazi propaganda and purchases abroad, and to get investors interested in the welfare of German concerns.

The second German peace offensive came to us in the persons of several diplomats, businessmen and churchmen. I shall take one man from a neutral country as their prototype.

In the fall of 1942 this important businessman arrived in America with introductions from even more important personages and instructions to confer with leading bankers. He carried a trial balloon—a postwar plan for division of world markets between Germany and the United States. If the United States would agree to the terms, Adolf Hitler would be dethroned, perhaps even handed over to the United Nations.

Germany realized this man said, that with our tremendous economic machine we would need enormous markets. As for Germany, after her intense sufferings in this war, she would be content with very modest markets and business transactions.

The visitor was asked what Germany proposed to do about the countries she had conquered? Germany was willing, he replied, to withdraw from her western conquests, perhaps even from retaining Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, and a great part of the Ukraine.

Germany further insisted, according to the "neutral" businessman, on keeping every economic holding acquired through the years in France, in Belgium, in Holland, and elsewhere, because "Germany naturally requires economic control of Europe."

The emissary vainly waited for some encouragement; he received none. While he sat around here, his colleagues in a neutral country in Europe became impatient. They made the same proposal to Great Britain.

The British told them the game wouldn't work. The Americans and the English compared notes. The trial balloons collapsed.

THE militarists played another tune, a melody of several well-worn motifs—the strength of the German army. To the Russians it was described as the "bulwark" against aggression from the capitalist countries, which hate the home of Communism. The inference is that the German army loves Russia. It has chosen a rather unpleasant way of showing it.

England, the United States, and China were urged to remember that unless the German army remained intact, how could they hope to destroy Communism, or restore order in Europe and Asia?

Would Russia perhaps exploit her great victories to establish sovietism in Central Europe? Would this development then lead to the formation of that Russo-German colossus which the western powers have feared ever since Russia began making her weight felt in Europe?

Undeniably, much of the stronger underground movement in Germany is Communist. It is equally true that the kinship between the Nazi and the Communist systems is very close. But even should Russian and German leaders consider it expedient during the transition period after the war to renew their collaboration, the populations of both countries would still have to be won to the idea.

In the end, the extent to which the Soviet government will seek to strengthen its hold on Central Europe will depend on the ability of Britain and the United States to strike the right note both with the Russians and with the Germans. A desire for hegemony in any of the United Nations camps would be disastrous to future peace.

dispensable,
too?

An open letter to the wartime millionaires of "Businessmen
for Roosevelt, Inc."

We neighborhood businessmen here in Missouri don't care much for this advertisement you have been running in our newspapers here. We don't like your smug and superior reference to Tom Dewey as the "Dispensable Man." We don't like the inference that your candidate is indispensable.

Maybe men like your honorary president, Andrew J. Higgins, and your Executive Council Chairman, J. Louis Reynolds, do honestly consider your candidate for a 4th term indispensable.

But we are just everyday businessmen, the men who own and operate the corner service station, the neighborhood grocery, the drug store and the other small businesses that account for 64% of all the business done in America.

While men like your Mr. Higgins and Mr. Reynolds have been growing rich from government contracts financed by government funds, we have been struggling to death in bureaucratic red tape. We have been spending from 5 to 20% of our long work days filling out government forms and running to government bureaus for permission every time we take an inventory, open a new charge account, hire a new clerk or change a price tag.

Frankly, many of us can't survive another four years under the man you consider indispensable. He and his policies have already driven many of us out of business. Many more of us will have to close our doors if our present persecution continues.

We don't like to think of ourselves as "dispensable." In fact, we feel that the nation would miss its millions of self-respecting, independent small businessmen a great deal more than the handful of men like Higgins and Reynolds, who owe so much to the administration that threatens to drive us to the wall.

That's why we are going to the polls November 7 to vote against your indispensable man and for Tom Dewey.

In the peace to come we want to do our part towards providing jobs and security. Our only hope of being able to do that is to elect Tom Dewey President of the United States November 7.

Who is Higgins?

Andrew J. Higgins, honorary president of Businessmen for Roosevelt, Inc., is the Higgins of Higgins Industries. Back in 1939, before the war, his firm reported a net profit from building motor boats down in New Orleans of $31,748. Then came the war, big government contracts financed by government funds, and even by the end of 1942, net profits of his firm had grown to $1,648,681. Then came the war, a common stock, all owned by only ten individuals, had skyrocketed from 11¢ a share to $8.44!

Who is Reynolds?

R. S. Reynolds, Executive Committee Chairman of Businessmen for Roosevelt, Inc., is vice president of the Reynolds Metals Company, a son of the president. Back in 1939, before the war, his firm reported an operating profit of $2,028,493, a good part of it from making metal foil for packaging candy, cigarettes, etc. Then came the war, a government drive to increase aluminum production, and huge government contracts financed by government funds. In 1943, Reynolds Metals Company's operating profit was $13,526,636 and the company and its many subsidiaries were operating three bauxite mines and forty plants virtually 100% on government contracts.

Dulles Aids America First

Last month this column reported certain facts regarding John Foster Dulles, the man selected by Governor Dewey to deal with Secretary Hull on the all-important problem of post-war peace.

Inadvertently one of these columns may have given the wrong impression.

It was stated on Sept. 25 (26 on Pacific Coast) that "it was through his law firm that Dulles got mixed up indirectly with the America First Committee." The impression was conveyed that Dulles did not know too much about, or sympathize with, the fact that a member of his firm had drawn up the incorporation papers for the New York branch of America First.

Further information is now in the possession of this column, which changes the picture.

The records of the America First Committee show that in February, 1941, Jane A. Dulles, wife of Mr. Dulles, contributed $250 to the America First Committee. The records also show that in May, 1941, she contributed an additional $200.

Dulles Denies Isolationism
Finally, on Nov. 5, 1941, just one month before Pearl Harbor, the records of America First credit a contribution from "John Foster Dulles" of $500. On that same date, Edwin S. Webster, Jr., partner in the investment firm of Kidder, Peabody and secretary of the New York chapter, received a letter from Mrs. Dulles saying that she had told Mrs. Cram, the night before, that she would watch her contributions.

On the same day, Nov. 5, Mr. Webster wrote back to Mrs. Dulles thanking her for helping to meet the cost of the rally. (The America First Committee had held a big Lindbergh rally at about that time.)

Last summer, when queried about the fact that his firm had incorporated the New York chapter of America First, Dulles was quoted as saying: "No one who knows me and what I have done and stood for consistently over 37 years of active life could reasonably think that I could be an isolationist or 'America First' in deed or spirit."

Find Babies In Former Auto Laundry

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Confronted with the discovery of the bodies of six newly-born babies in a former auto laundry, police theorized Tuesday they were hidden there by "someone who agreed to dispose of the babies as soon as they were born." "It looks like a racket," detective sergeant Benjamin Furlong said, but added he had no clues to work on. He expressed belief the children were born somewhere else, immediately wrapped in rags and smothered, and then carried to the storeroom in the building where they were found in trunks, an orange crate, a bushel basket and a cardboard box.

Happenings in The Big Six

By Arthur Edson

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 1—(P)—There's one good reason why Oklahoma may stop Iowa State in their game at Ames, Ia., Saturday in which the winner will be tossed an inside track to a Big Six football title.

This reason is 6 feet, 1 inch tall, weighs 190 and is 20 years old. The name is Bob Mayfield and he was good enough last year to be named center on the Associated Press all-Big Six team. About the only difference this year is that the boys whose job it is to describe these all-stars may have to think up fancier superlatives for Mayfield.

One of Iowa State's strongest points is passing, and therein is the moral of this tale. Last week Oklahoma played Texas Christian, which also concentrates on throwing. At the end of three periods Oklahoma was ahead, but barely, 21-19, and the way the Christian pass attack was working it looked as if that lead might not last any longer than a half dollar in a night club.

Then Mayfield went into action. His pass interception stopped a TCU charge and gave Oklahoma the shove it needed to race to a 34-19 triumph.

Mayfield backs up the line, watches for those damaging passes down the middle and calls defensive signals. The way he performs his chores will go far in determining whether Oklahoma retains its title, or whether the championship will be parked in Ames for the first time in Big Six history.

Herb Bunker Fumbles One

Herb Bunker, the Missouri line coach, writes in to say he fumbled in an interview last week. In discussing Ray Cliffe, Missouri end, Bunker described Ray as a fine football player who was 4-F in the draft. Bunker was embarrassed to learn later that Cliffe is a veteran of World War II, having served in anti-aircraft at Camp Hulen, Tex., until he received a medical discharge. Bunker adds he wants the 4-F fallacy corrected, but says he won't change the rest of his statement. He still thinks Cliffe is A-1, and 1-A, as an end.

"Showboat," E. C. Quigley

Short punt: D. D. Daly, Topeka Telegrapher, discloses that back in the days when E. C. Quigley, now University of Kansas athletic director, was umpiring baseball, the major leaguers called him "Showboat." And to anyone who has seen the colorful Quig work the moniker is self-explanatory. . . . Missouri has retreated its line in preparation for Michigan State. Only Tackle Jim Kekeris and Guard Robert Stone escaped demotion.

Nebraska Takes on Iowa

Nebraska, defeated by Minnesota and Indiana, tries another big Ten foe, Iowa, and this time there is mild hope for success. . . . No matter who wins, fans in the state of Kansas can cheer the victors unreservedly Saturday. In two strictly Kansas fuses, Kansas U. plays the Olathe Navy air base and Kansas State meets Wichita.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
NEW YORK, Nov. 1—(P)—Few baseball fans knew Leo Bondy, vice president and treasurer of the Giants, who died Sunday, but the men who run the big league clubs will miss him greatly. . . . So will the fellows who hang around Eddie Brannick's office during the winter trying to cook up occasional baseball stories for the papers. . . . Bondy was the kind of man who is content to remain in the background, but his knowledge of law and baseball made him invaluable both as an adviser and as a news source. . . . Leo always knew what was going on (except, perhaps, at odd moments on the golf course) whether the club owners' plans were sound and why not.

Speed and Deception

When Clark Shaughnessy first introduced the modernized "T" formation to west coast football, he relates, the Southern California coaching staff assigned two scouts to cover his Stanford team. . . . When they reported Coach Jeff Cravath of USC asked: "What does that man in motion do?" . . . "Why, Coach," replied one puzzled scout, "he does everything but run up in the press stand and serve coffee and doughnuts to the scouts."

One Minute Sports Page

Southern football fans continue to pour in praise of Mississippi State's Shorty McWilliams, who they say is not only a great runner but an outstanding kicker and a fair passer. . . . But Shorty may have a rival some day in Bobby Gage of Anderson, S. C., high school. Bobby has scored a touchdown the first time he handled the ball in four out of five games so far. Rogers Hornsby turned down an offer to become a scout for Cubs, saying: "There isn't any baseball to scout because all the ball players are in service and what's in the minor leagues now doesn't count."

Service Dept.

Sgt. Al Randall of Keesler Field, Miss., former Nebraska basketball player, finally located a pair of size 14 gym shoes in Jackson, Miss., after trying for 18 months. . . . "The only ones I have are those I had at Nebraska," said the six-foot-seven-inch Randall. "I've

Hog Market In A Sharp Drop

CHICAGO, Nov. 1—(P)—Hog prices broke again Tuesday, making a drop of 50 cents to 75 cents a hundred pounds within the last two days and sending the top price below $14 for the first time since July 30.

The sudden price drop accompanied a seasonal increase in receipts as the spring pig crop began coming to market in volume.

Hog prices yesterday fell down 25 to 50 cents—below prices for the first time since July—and the decline today was as much as 50 cents below Monday's average cost, with good and choice hogs selling for as low as $13.75.

Receipts at a dozen leading western markets totaled 83,700 yesterday, compared with 76,471 a week ago. Local receipts were 21,500, including 8,500 billed direct from outside purchasing points and there were 3,000 carried over unsold from yesterday's market session.

'Worthless Promises' Says Dewey

Dewey Outlines 8-Point Program For The Nation

By Gardner Bridge
BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 1—(AP)—Charging President Roosevelt with making "worthless" campaign promises, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey outlined Tuesday night an 8-point Republican program he said would "bring an end to government by abuse and smear."

The GOP nominee declared in an address prepared for a national broadcast in Memorial auditorium that if he won the presidency in Tuesday's election he would take office Jan. 20 "without a promise, expressed or implied, to a living soul" except for public campaign pledges he had made.

"There is no One Thousand Club in my party," the governor declared. "I have not offered the government of the United States for sale at one thousand dollars to any man and I never will to any one at any price. Your new administration will take office honestly, without secret promises of special privilege to any class, group or section."

Program In Brief

Here, in brief, is what he said the Republicans would do if they were victorious:

1. "Direct all government policies toward the goal of full employment through full production at a high level of wages x x x."
2. "Adopt an entirely new tax structure" designed primarily to "create jobs."
3. "Make our Social Security

Campaigner

Elizabeth Royon, above, of Cleveland, O., received both plaudits and protests from fellow Smith College alumnae when she sent out 16,500 pro-Roosevelt postcards, at her own expense, to fellow alumnae. She said she was prompted to do so when the New York Times came out editorially for F. D. R. She received protest from college officials over use of the alumnae list for political purposes.

system available to every American x x x."

4. Establish a definite and secure floor under farm prices x x x."

5. "Restore free collective bargaining in America."

6. "Abolish the greater part of government reports required from big and little business."

7. "Bring an end to business monopoly" through the acquisition of "a competent staff of prosecutors" in the Department of Justice.

8. "Establish an entirely new basis between the president and congress x x x."

'Dangerous Threat'

Quoting some of President Roosevelt's words from recent speeches, Dewey listed pledges he said his opponent had made and declared that each individual promise would be "no good," "worthless," even though it was repeated "again and again and again."

He thus employed the "again and again and again" phrase which Mr. Roosevelt used in 1940 in declaring that Americans would not be sent into a foreign war, a statement that has been the subject of political dispute since that time.

Asserting that a fourth term is "the most dangerous threat to our freedom ever proposed," Dewey advocated an amendment to the constitution to limit a president's tenure to two terms.

"We must not have—we cannot have four years more of stalemate and hostility between the president and congress," Dewey said. "We must restore to the White House a willingness to work out problems with congress as equals, in the American fashion, over the conference table. We must bring an end to government by abuse and smear."

Questions Job Promise

The GOP nominee called "worthless" the pledge he said President Roosevelt had made Saturday night in a campaign speech in Chicago when he "once again promise jobs for every American when peacetime comes."

Reciting his often-repeated statement that there still were 10,000,000 unemployed in March, 1940, Dewey asserted:

"On the record, his promise of jobs is worthless. It will still be worthless, even though it is repeated again, again and again."

The governor said Mr. Roosevelt had "discovered from my Philadelphia speech" of Sept. 7 that this country ought to be building a million new homes a year. Under the New Deal, he continued, the average was only 380,000 a year.

"My opponent now promises to free the American working man from the strangling bureaucracy he himself has created," Dewey declared. "When a man promises in trying to win an election that he will reverse the course of everything he has done for 12 years—then that promise, too, on the record, is no good, even though it is repeated again, again and again."

Bodies Of Flyers Sent To Homes

The bodies of Lieut. George Paul Tierman of Los Angeles, and Flight Officer Raymond C. Ernst of Palmdale, Calif., who were killed in the crash of a transport plane from the Sedalia Army Air Field Sunday near Belton, Mo., were sent by train late Tuesday afternoon to their homes for burial, by the Gillespie funeral home.

The body of the third crash victim, Flight Officer Edward Louis Gehm, will be sent this morning to his home in Hackensack, N. J. Military escorts accompany the bodies.

Mrs. John Wayne Sues For Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1—(AP)—Mrs. John Wayne Tuesday sued her movie cowboy for divorce, alleging only a general charge of cruelty. They were married 11 years ago, and have four children, ranging in age from five to 10 years.

"Because of my religion I regard divorce as a purely civil action in no way affecting the moral aspects of a marriage," Mrs. Wayne said in a statement. The Waynes were married by a Catholic priest at the home of Loretta Young.

Truman And Wallace Speak

Call For Huge Democratic Vote In New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 1—(AP)—Sen. H. S. Truman said Tuesday night "Gov. Dewey and his campaign managers have encouraged, as a part of their political strategy, a vicious and un-American campaign directed against Americans of foreign birth."

"They have refused to repudiate those who seek to fan the flame of racial and religious bigotry," the Democratic vice presidential nominee added in a prepared address at a rally sponsored in Madison Square Garden by the Liberal Party.

"This is the way Democracy and equality were undermined in other lands," Truman said.

For the first time in the campaign, Truman shared a speaking platform with Vice President Henry A. Wallace, the man he defeated for renomination.

The Liberal party, which arranged the program, was established last year by a group which broke away from the American Labor party. Both the American Labor and Liberal parties are supporting the Democratic National ticket.

Truman called for the reelection of President Roosevelt as the champion of "universal freedom and universal tolerance" whose talent and experience "constitute a national asset we cannot afford to waste."

Discussing the war, Truman said "we dare not gamble with the life of a single American soldier" and that "the great life-saving task of shortening the war, we dare not entrust to the hands of a beginner."

Refers To Truman

Wallace, who made no mention of Truman in his first formal address of the campaign in Madison Square Garden several weeks ago, twice referred to Truman by name in his prepared speech tonight.

Calling for a huge vote for the Democratic National ticket in New York City, Wallace asked:

"As you bend over your radios a week from now with your hearts pumping madly, who do you want to hear has carried New York state—Bricker and Dewey, or

Millions Switch To Mutton Suet Idea For Chest Colds

Quickly Relieves Children's Colds, Coughs, Loosens Phlegm

Many mothers all over America are switching to this idea of getting fast relief for these chest colds. They are simply following Grandma. For years she counted on mutton suet to help carry her home medication to do its pain-easing work on nerve ends in the skin. No wonder so many more now welcome Grandma's idea as improved by science—Penetro, with its multi-medicated formula in a base containing mutton suet—that acts both as counter-irritant and pain-reliever when you spread it on, and as a soothing aromatic when breathed in. And so today Penetro hurries along never help in the old reliable way—help that eases painful misery, lessens coughing, loosens phlegm, soothes chest rawness—so that you can rest more comfortably and give nature a chance to restore vitality. That's why millions are switching to Penetro today—why druggists are recommending it. 25c, double supply 35c. For all your family's chest cold miseries, be sure you get white, easy-to-use Penetro.

Truman and Roosevelt?" "Some people tell us," the vice president continued, "that here and there you can find someone skulking in his tent because he doesn't like something a reactionary Democrat has done. Well, ocrat. Neither is Truman a reactionary Democrat isn't a reactionary Dem- tionary Democrat.

... or meeting a comrade in Northwest Canada

Friendship comes easy to allies devoted to common causes and borders without guns. Have a "Coke", says the Yank sergeant to the Canadian mountie, and he's talking a lingo of friendship that both understand. That's the informal North American way to say Greetings, friend. It's the same informal way to put friends at ease in your own living room, too. From the Yukon to the Gulf, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes—a symbol of a friendly way to get along with folks.
